LAW 62 CORRECTION OF A REVOKE

A. Revoke Must Be Corrected

A player must correct his revoke if he becomes aware of the irregularity before it becomes established.

B. Correcting a Revoke

To correct a revoke, the offender withdraws the card he played in revoking and follows suit with any card.

1. Defender's Card

A card so withdrawn becomes a penalty card if it was played from a defender's unfaced hand. A penalty card must be left face up on the table immediately before the player to whom it belongs until a rectification has been selected.

2. Declarer's or Dummy's Card, Defender's Faced Card

The card may be replaced without penalty if it was played from declarer's or dummy's hand, or if it was a defender's faced card.

LAW 63 ESTABLISHMENT OF A REVOKE

B. Revoke May Not Be Corrected

When there has been a violation of revoker must substitute a legal card and the penalty provisions of apply as if the revoke had been established.

C. Revoke May Not Be Corrected

Once a revoke is established, it may no longer be corrected and the trick on which the revoke occurred stands as played

LAW 64 PROCEDURE AFTER ESTABLISHMENT OF A REVOKE

A. Rectification following a Revoke

When a revoke is established:

1. Offending Player Won Revoke Trick and the trick on which the revoke occurred was won by the offending player, or offending side after play ceases, the trick on which the revoke occurred, plus one of any subsequent tricks won by the offending side, are transferred to the non-offending side.

B. No Rectification

The penalty for an established revoke does not apply:

1. Offending Side Fails to Win Revoke Trick or Subsequent Trick if the offending side did not win either the revoke trick or any subsequent trick.
2. Second Revoke in Same Suit by Offender to a subsequent revoke in the same suit by the same player.
3. Revoke by Failure to Play a Faced Card if the revoke was made in failing to play any card faced on the table or belonging to a hand faced on the table, including a card from dummy's hand.
4. After Non-offending Side Calls to Next Deal if attention was first drawn to the revoke after a member of the non-offending side has made a call on the subsequent deal.
5. After Round Has Ended if attention was first drawn to the revoke after the round has ended.
6. Revoke on Twelfth Trick to a revoke on the twelfth trick. if attention was first drawn to the revoke after the round has ended.
